

Melinda and Jerry Johnston

Dr. and Mrs. Wills H. Murphey, Jr.

Development on target (week target and Development Series) from 9 a.m. to noon at the center located at 2701 W. Berry St. in Fort Worth. For information call 817-334-0228.

• Knowledge For Success, Inc. will host New QUEST from 5:30-9:30 p.m. each Thursday through Dec. 12 at 5401 Woodway Drive in Fort Worth. The program provides in-depth training for aspiring entrepreneurs and new small business the Business Owners Speakers Series breakfast from 7:30-9 a.m. at the TCU Kelly Alumni Center located at 2820 Stadium Drive in Fort Worth. The discussion is titled How to Optimize and Protect Your Computer Network System. For information contact Netty Matthews at nmatthews@fortworthchamber.com.

Send calendar items to managingeditor@bizpress.net

Sept. 27-29

Moya Art Events and Downtown Arlington Management Corporation present the first South St. Art Festival in downtown Arlington at East South St. one block from the Levitt Pavilion. The festival showcases up to 75 artists from around the country in 11 different mediums: ceramics, drawing, fiber, glass, jewelry, metal, mixed media, painting, photography, sculpture and wood. Live music takes place each day at the Coors Light Stage. Food trucks and downtown Arlington restaurants are serving a wide variety of food choices. Beer, wine and soft drinks are available for purchase and coolers are not permitted. For information go to <http://www.southstreetartfest.com/>.

Art Festival